Please carefully read and respond to the following questions regarding the SDHSA website and newsletter:

Please be aware that photos taken at SDHSA tours and activities are posted on the password-protected, members-only area of the group website (which includes the SDHSA newsletter). In submitting this form, you acknowledge that photos that include you and your family may be used in this manner. We do not post photos of our member families on the public section of our website without prior authorization.

- Do we have permission to post photos of our tours and activities that include your family members on the public section our website? Yes _____ No _____ .
- May we mention your child(ren)'s birthday in our newsletter and on our website (both password-protected)? Yes _____ No _____ .

To further assist our members in getting to know each other, the SDHSA maintains a member directory, available for viewing and/or direct printing, from the password-protected, members-only area of our website. The directory includes names of family members, address, phone number, email address, birth dates of the children (month and year), method/style of homeschooling, and a photo of each family (if contributed). May we include your family's information in the member directory? Yes _____ No _____. If yes, the contribution of a family photo to include in your directory entry would be very much appreciated. Digital photos may be sent to our web coordinator at website@sdhsa.org.
